

Senior Judge Joel Lazarus was honored with the Florida Law Related Education Association's 2013 Outstanding Service Award for his many years of dedication to educating Florida's youth. The award recognizes "lifetime achievements in the advancement and promotion of law related education and exemplary leadership in Florida's high school mock trial program."

Throughout his legal career, Judge Lazarus has been active in many community education programs and initiatives both locally and state-wide, from the beginning of Fort Lauderdale High School's Mock Trial program to advising and judging competitions all over Florida. His advice to young attorneys and law students is the same he follows himself..."The best way to get involved is through education."

Congratulations Judge Lazarus!
