

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SEVENTEENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

Order Number 2009-76-UFC

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER REQUIRING ESTABLISHMENT SUPPORT DEPOSITORY ACCOUNT

- (a) Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(3) states the chief judge shall “develop an administrative plan for the efficient and proper administration of all courts within that circuit.”
- (b) The volume of unified family cases that include a final judgment or order for support requires a uniform procedure to establish a depository account for the receipt, disbursement, and enforcement of support obligations.
- (c) In accordance with the authority vested in the chief judge by Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215, it is ordered:
- (1) The attorney of record for a party receiving support shall establish a depository account with the Clerk of the Circuit Court within ten (10) days of the final judgment or order establishing a support obligation. If the party entitled to receive support does not have an attorney then the party shall establish a depository account with the Clerk of the Circuit Court within ten (10) days of the final judgment or order establishing a support obligation.
 - (2) At the time of establishing the depository account with the Clerk of Circuit Court the attorney and/or party shall complete any and all forms required by the Clerk of Circuit Court and provide a copy of the final judgment or order establishing the support obligation.
 - (3) If a final judgment or order establishing a support obligation is modified, a copy of the modified order shall be provided to the Clerk of Circuit Court’s depository staff within (10) days of the final judgment or order modifying the support obligation.

DONE AND ORDERED in chambers at Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida on July 1, 2009.
