

Office of the Court Administrator

Seventeenth Judicial Circuit

Twelfth Unified Family Court Summit

November 15, 2019

Jury Room, Main Courthouse

Agenda

Child and Elder Abuse

8:30 am-8:45 am-Welcome and Introductions-Court Administration and the Judiciary

8:45 am -12:00 noon-Patricia Dailey Lewis, Esquire-Executive Director of the Beau Biden Foundation for the Protection of Children. The presentation is Recognizing, Reporting, and Reacting responsibly to child abuse including the Stewards of Children training for two hours. The third hour is regarding grooming and vulnerable children.

Learning Objectives:

Stewards of Children Training

Identify Child Sexual Abuse

Learn proactive steps to protect children from sexual abuse

Know the five steps to protecting our children

Know the process for reporting which includes the mandatory reporting law and standards for Florida

Grooming

Identify the risk of grooming in youth serving organizations

Identify the steps that groomers employ

12:00 noon-1:00 pm- Lunch on your own

1:00 pm-2:00 pm-Linda Fieldstone, M.Ed.-Co-chair of the Elder Justice Initiative on Eldercaring Coordination and Fran L. Tetunic, J.D-Professor of Law at Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law. The presentation is regarding Eldercaring Coordination and Elder Mediation.

Learning Objectives:

Explain the similarities and differences between Eldercaring Coordination and Elder Mediation.

Identify the characteristics of families that make them more amenable to each process.

Detail the benefits of Eldercaring Coordination for families in high conflict over the care and safety of an older adult.

2:00 pm-3:30 pm-Deborah Golden, Senior Human Services Program Specialist-Adult Protective Services. The program is regarding Adult Abuse, Neglect and Exploitation including the elderly.

Learning Objectives:

Explain the Mandatory Reporting Process

Explain what to look for regarding abuse, neglect and exploitation of adults.

Learning Objectives:

At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to:

Identify processes for safeguarding children and demonstrate how to report child abuse.

Identify processes for safeguarding adults including the elderly and demonstrate how to report adult abuse, neglect and exploitation.

*CEU Information

No partial credits will be provided, participants requesting CEU credits must attend the full program.

This program, Child and Elder Abuse, offers 5.5 CEU hours of Continuing Education as Approved by the Florida Board of Clinical Work, Marriage and Family and Mental Health Counseling and 5.0 hours for the Florida Board of Nursing.

Henderson Behavioral Health Provider # BAP 234 Nursing Provider # 50-926

The Office of the State Courts Administrator will apply for CLE credits and CJE credits.

The entire program is worth up to 6.6 Interpersonal Violence (IPV) Certified Mediator Education credits for all certified mediators.

The application has been made by the Court Interpreter Certification and Regulation Program for Continuing Interpreter education credits. For further details, regarding the Interpreter credits, please call (954) 831-6063 or email mvidaud@17th.flcourts.org.