Broward County Community Action Partnership

LIHEAP Program

Welcome to LIHEAP

What is the LIHEAP Program?

The LIHEAP (Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program) is a federally funded program that provides support to needy low-income households for utility bill payments. Support is provided on a first come-first served basis, so apply early.

How do I qualify?

- Must be a Broward County resident
- Household income at or below 150% of the Poverty Guidelines

How do I apply?

Call 954-357-5025 for dates and times to complete and drop off your application.

Submit an application and supporting documents at one of our satellite offices (reverse side of brochure).

Application Process & supporting documents

What supporting documents should I bring when I apply?

- An FPL bill in the name of an adult member of the household
- State of Florida picture identification showing Broward County address (for all persons over 18)
- Proof of immigration status (permanent residence) for all non-US citizens
- Social Security Cards for all household members
- Birth Certificates for children age 5 or younger
- Proof of income (see column to the right)
- Current Section 8 or Public Housing Contract, and Form 50059 showing current utility allowance
- Clients must provide their own copies

Additional documents may be requested upon review of your application.
