

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SEVENTEENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

Administrative Order No. 2021-5-CO

ESTABLISHING LOCATIONS FOR THE FILING OF COUNTY CIVIL ACTIONS AND THE HEARING OF SMALL CLAIMS CIVIL ACTIONS

(a) Pursuant to Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

(b) Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215 (b) (3) states the Chief Judge shall “develop an administrative plan” and “shall, considering available resources, ensure the efficient and proper administration of all courts within [this] circuit.”

(c) The Broward County Board of County Commissioners has established four (4) courthouses in Broward County. The Broward County Central Judicial Complex is located at 201 S.E. Sixth Street, Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301 (“Central Courthouse”). The North Regional Courthouse is located at 1600 West Hillsboro Boulevard, Deerfield Beach, Florida 33442 (“North Regional Courthouse”). The South Regional Courthouse is located at 3550 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, Florida 33021 (“South Regional Courthouse”). The West Regional Courthouse is located at 100 North Pine Island Road, Plantation, Florida 33324 (“West Regional Courthouse”). For purposes of this Administrative Order, the Central Courthouse, North Regional Courthouse, South Regional Courthouse, and West Regional Courthouse will collectively be referred to as “the “Broward County Courthouses.”

(d) County Court civil actions are assigned to the Broward County Courthouses, and a fair and equitable distribution of the caseload is required.

B. SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) All County Court civil division cases shall be filed based upon the zip code of the plaintiff unless represented by counsel, in which case, the primary street address of the physical office location of the attorney shall be utilized.
- (2) Upon the filing of a new County Court civil division case, the Clerk of the Court shall review the filing and ensure it is filed in and assigned to the appropriate courthouse location as set forth herein.
- (3) A zip code listed in this Administrative Order may cover cities or locations other than those specifically noted herein. Regardless of the city or location designated on the filing, the zip code listed on the filing shall control and the action filed in and assigned to the appropriate courthouse location as set forth herein.
- (4) An attorney whose primary street address (excluding a post office box location) of his or her physical office location is not located in Broward County may not circumvent the application of this Administrative Order by retaining local counsel to cover his or her hearing, nor by opening a satellite office or post office box/mail drop that is not the attorney's primary street address of his or her physical office location.

(5) In the instance when a case has been filed with co-counsel with primary street addresses in different zip codes, the case shall be filed at the courthouse location in the following order of priority based on the relevant zip code: South, West, North, Central.

(6) All County Court civil division cases filed absent a zip code shall be assigned to the Central Courthouse and may be reassigned pursuant to the provisions of this Administrative Order.

(7) If a County Court civil division case is not filed in accordance with this Administrative Order, the presiding judge on his or her own motion or upon the duly filed motion of either party can transfer the action to the appropriate courthouse location. The presiding judge may, sua sponte, impose sanctions, as permitted by law, for failure of the filer to comply with this Administrative Order.

C. ASSIGNMENT OF SMALL CLAIMS CREDIT CARD AND CONSUMER DEBT CASES

(1) Notwithstanding the zip code designations above, the Clerk of the County Court shall assign all small claims credit card and consumer debt cases filed under the Clerk's filing codes SC11, SC12, SC13, SC14, and SC 15 to County Civil Division 47. This includes any case filed prior to the effective date of this Administrative Order and which does not have a divisional assignment.

(2) Division 47 dockets/hearings shall be scheduled on an hourly basis as directed by the Administrative Judge of the County Court. Each hourly docket shall be capped at a total of (30) cases.

(3) Any case in which a party demands a jury trial that is not settled on or before the pretrial conference date shall be transferred for random assignment to another county civil division.

D. HEARING OF SMALL CLAIMS CIVIL ACTIONS

(1) Except as provided for in Section C. above, the small claims dockets shall be set by the Clerk of the County Court as follows:

(a) The Clerk of the Courts shall assign small claims cases to all County Court civil divisions.

(b) Small claims cases shall be assigned to dockets as follows:

(i) Central Courthouse small claims dockets shall continue to be set on dockets as designated in written notice by the Administrative Judge of the County Court. All personal injury protection (“PIP”) and other insurance cases shall be set on the 1:30 p.m. docket. The Administrative Judge of the County Court shall provide the Clerk of the Courts with the schedule of when the County Court civil judges located at the Central Courthouse will be hearing small claims cases so that the cases may be assigned to the appropriate division and may also make necessary adjustments to the number of cases set per docket.

(ii) Satellite courthouse locations (North Regional Courthouse, South Regional Courthouse, and West Regional Courthouse) small claims cases shall be equally distributed to the County Court judges and the dockets set as directed by the judge assigned to the county civil division unless otherwise directed by the Administrative Judge of the County Court.

(2) This Administrative Order vacates and supersedes 2020-34-CO on February 22, 2021.

DONE AND ORDERED at Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida, this 12th day of February, 2021.
