

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SEVENTEENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

Administrative Order 2025-23-PRC

GOVERNING PETITIONS FOR INJUNCTION FOR PROTECTION AGAINST EXPLOITATION OF A VULNERABLE ADULT

(a) Pursuant to Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

(b) Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(3) states the chief judge “ensures the efficient and proper administration of all courts within [this] circuit, considering available resources.”

(c) Section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, creates a cause of action for an injunction for protection against the exploitation of a vulnerable adult.

(d) In accordance with the authority vested in the chief judge by Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215, it is hereby ORDERED:

(1) A petition for injunction against exploitation of a vulnerable adult may be filed by:

- a. A vulnerable adult in imminent danger of being exploited;
- b. The guardian of a vulnerable adult in imminent danger of being exploited;
- c. A person or organization acting on behalf of the vulnerable adult with the consent of the vulnerable adult or his or her guardian;
- d. An agent under a valid durable power of attorney with the authority specifically granted in the power of attorney; or
- e. A person who simultaneously files a petition for determination of incapacity and appointment of an emergency temporary guardian with respect to the vulnerable adult.

A petition for injunction against exploitation of a vulnerable adult must be sworn, and allege the existence of exploitation, or the imminent exploitation, of the vulnerable adult, and must include specific facts and circumstances for which relief is sought. The form petition attached hereto as Attachment “A” is approved for use in the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit. The petitioning party shall also submit as an exhibit to the petition information on the respondent’s physical description and location, and the petitioner may utilize the form attached hereto as Attachment “B.”

(2) All petitions for injunction against exploitation of a vulnerable adult shall be assigned by the Clerk of the Court to a probate division. If there is a proceeding pertaining to the vulnerable adult under Chapter 744, Florida Statutes pending at the time of filing, the petition must be filed in that proceeding.

(3) When a petition for an injunction against exploitation of a vulnerable adult is filed, the Clerk of the Court shall notify the assigned division judge or the judge’s designee of the filing no later than one (1) business day after the date of filing. If filed through the e-portal, the filing should be designated by the filing party as an “emergency,” so that the Clerk and judge may be aware of the need for review and entry of a written order.

(4) Upon notification of the filing, the assigned division judge shall immediately review the petition and shall enter either: (1) a temporary ex parte injunction for protection against exploitation of a vulnerable adult pending a full hearing; or (2) a written order denying the petition on an ex parte basis, with the specific legal grounds stated therein, and setting a full hearing. When reviewing an ex parte petition, the court may consider all relevant factors, including those expressly set forth in section 825.1035(6), Florida Statutes. In all instances in which a full hearing is required under section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, the presiding judge shall strive to schedule such hearing on the earliest possible date, but in no event more than fifteen (15) days from the date the petition is filed. An ex parte temporary injunction entered pursuant to section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, is valid for a fixed period not to exceed fifteen (15) days, unless good cause is shown to extend the injunction.

(5) The Clerk of the Court shall comply with the obligations set forth in section 825.1035(4), Florida Statutes, including providing simplified petition forms and instructions for completion thereof, assisting petitioners in filing petitions pursuant to section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, and providing copies of all petitions filed and orders entered pursuant to section 825.1035, Florida Statutes to the adult protective services program.

(6) The Clerk of the Court shall furnish a copy of the petition, financial affidavit, notice of hearing, and any temporary injunction to the Sheriff of the county in which the respondent resides or can be found, who shall serve it upon the respondent as soon thereafter as possible on any day of the week and at any time of the day or night. The Clerk of the Court shall also furnish to the Sheriff such information on the respondent's physical description and location as is required by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement.

(7) If the vulnerable adult is not the petitioner, the Clerk of the Court shall furnish a copy of the petition, financial affidavit, notice of hearing, and any temporary injunction to the Sheriff of the county in which the vulnerable adult resides or can be found, who shall serve it upon the vulnerable adult as soon thereafter as possible on any day of the week and at any time of the day or night. The Clerk of the Court shall also furnish to the Sheriff such information on the respondent's physical description and location as is required by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement and as provided by the petitioner.

(8) At the request of the Sheriff, the Clerk of the Court may transmit an injunction that has been certified by the Clerk of the Court via facsimile or other electronic means as contemplated and permitted by the Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, which electronic copy may be served in the same manner as a certified copy.

(9) Within twenty-four (24) hours after the court issues an injunction pursuant to section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, the Clerk of the Court must forward a certified copy of the order to the Sheriff with jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner for service in accordance with section 825.1035, Florida Statutes.

(10) Within twenty-four (24) hours after service of an injunction issued under section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, the law enforcement officer who served the injunction must forward the written proof of service to the sheriff with jurisdiction over the residence of the petitioner.

(11) Within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving a certified copy of an injunction issued under section 825.1035, Florida Statutes, the Sheriff must make information related to the injunction available statewide by electronically transmitting such information to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement.

(12) Within twenty-four (24) hours after the Sheriff or other law enforcement officer has made service upon the respondent and the Sheriff has been so notified, the Sheriff must make information relating to the service available to other law enforcement agencies by electronically transmitting such information to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement.

(13) Within twenty-four (24) hours of the termination, expiration, or court order rendering an injunction issued under section 825.1035, Florida Statutes no longer effective, the Clerk of the Court must notify the Sheriff receiving original notification of the injunction, and the Sheriff, within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving such notification from the Clerk of the Court, shall notify the Florida Department of Law Enforcement of such court action.

(14) A permanent injunction issued pursuant to section 825.1035, Florida Statutes may be modified or dissolved by the court upon proper application by the petitioner, respondent, or vulnerable adult. The court shall promptly hear a motion to modify or dissolve an injunction issued under section 825.1035, Florida Statutes.

(15) This Administrative Order supersedes and vacates Administrative Order 2018-58-PRC.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida, this 22nd day of July, 2025.
