

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE SEVENTEENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA

Administrative Order 2022-18-UFC

PARENTING COORDINATION

(a) Pursuant to Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, the chief judge of each judicial circuit is charged with the authority and the power to do everything necessary to promote the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

(b) Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(3) states the chief judge “shall, considering available resources, ensure the efficient and proper administration of all courts within [this] circuit.”

(c) Pursuant to section 61.125, Florida Statutes, the purpose of parenting coordination is to provide a child-focused alternative dispute resolution process whereby a parenting coordinator assists the parents in creating or implementing a parenting plan by facilitating the resolution of disputes between the parents by providing education, making recommendations, and, with the prior approval of the parents and the court, making limited decisions within the scope of the court’s order or referral.

(d) The Florida Supreme Court recently adopted new rules relating to qualifications, renewal, and continuing education for qualified parenting coordinators. See In Re: Amendments to the Florida Rules for Qualified and Court-Appointed Parenting Coordinators, SC20-942 (December 2, 2021). Pursuant to the rule changes, the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution Rules and Policy developed standardized forms for initial and renewal applications for parenting coordination, and updated the continuing parenting coordination education requirements.

(e) In accordance with the authority vested in the Chief Judge by Article V, section 2(d) of the Florida Constitution, section 43.26, Florida Statutes, and Florida Rule of General Practice and Judicial Administration 2.215, it is hereby ORDERED:

I. Parenting Coordinator Registry

(1) The Office of the Trial Court Administrator will create and maintain a registry of parenting coordinators qualified pursuant to section 61.125, Florida Statutes. The registry shall include the contact information for each parenting coordinator, business address, email address, telephone and fax number (if available). Only qualified parenting coordinators from the Court's registry may be appointed. Individuals seeking court-ordered appointments as a parenting coordinator must complete an application, or renewal application, as applicable, as required by the Florida Rules for Qualified and Court-Appointed Parenting Coordinators. The application and renewal application are attached to this Order and shall be submitted to the following address:

Broward County Courthouse
Mediation and Arbitration
ATTN: Alternative Dispute Resolution Director
201 S.E. 6th Street, Suite WW19150
Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33301

(1) To ensure the appointment of qualified parenting coordinators, individuals must agree to undergo a criminal history and background investigation at the time of application, and annually thereafter for each year the parenting coordinator wishes to remain on the Circuit's registry.

(2) Pursuant to Rule for Qualified and Court-Appointed Parenting Coordinators 15.000, the Chief Judge or designee shall review each application and determine which individuals applying to serve as parenting coordinators meet the qualifications under section 61.125, Florida Statutes, to be included on the roster of qualified parenting coordinators.

(3) To remain on the Circuit's approved list, each parenting coordinator must submit a Continuing Parenting Coordination Education (CPCE) Reporting Form to the Circuit by December 31st of every odd calendar year (form attached), which includes verification of a minimum of 16 CPCE credits.

(4) Individuals approved as parenting coordinators shall immediately notify the Chief Judge or Chief Judge's designee and the Office of the Trial Court Administrator when the parenting coordinator, in any jurisdiction:

- (a) Has been convicted or had adjudication withheld on a charge of child abuse, child neglect, domestic violence, parental kidnapping, or interference with custody;
- (b) Has been found by a court in a child protection hearing to have abused, neglected, or abandoned a child;
- (c) Has consented to an adjudication or a withholding of adjudication on a petition for dependency;
- (d) Is or has been a respondent in a final order or injunction of protection against domestic violence; or
- (e) Has been disqualified by the Parenting Coordinator Review Board.

(5) The failure of an approved parenting coordinator to notify the Circuit of any item listed in paragraph (4) above or any other disqualifying circumstance as described in section 61.125, Florida Statutes, will result in the removal of the parenting coordinator from the Circuit's registry.

(6) A parenting coordinator shall not accept any case where there exists a conflict of interest (real or perceived). Each parenting coordinator has an ongoing duty to screen cases prior to providing services to avoid conflicts (real or perceived) and immediately notify the presiding judge in the event of a conflict so that another parenting coordinator may be appointed.

II. Review of Disciplinary Decisions by the Parenting Coordinator Review Board Panel

(1) Any parenting coordinator, sanctioned or found to have committed a violation of the Florida Rules For Qualified and Court-Appointed Parenting Coordinators, may seek review of such decision by submitting an original and one copy of a Notice of Review of Parenting Coordinator Disciplinary Action to the Administrative Judge of the Unified Family Court within thirty (30) days of the decision by the Parenting Coordinator Review Board Panel ("Panel"). A copy of the notice of review shall be provided to the Dispute Resolution Center ("DRC"). The parenting coordinator shall attach a copy of the adverse decision to the notice.

(2) Except as modified by this Administrative Order, review proceedings shall be governed by the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure.

(3) Briefs.

- (a) An initial brief shall be submitted within 30 days of the notice of review, the contents of which shall comply with Florida Rule of Appellate Procedure 9.210(b), to the extent applicable. An appendix with those portions of the record necessary to understand the issues presented may accompany the initial brief.
- (b) The answer brief, if any, shall be served and submitted within 30 days of service of the initial brief, and may be accompanied by an appendix.
- (c) The reply brief, if any, shall be served and submitted within 30 days of service of the answer brief.

(4) Standard of Review. The Administrative Judge of the Unified Family Court shall review the Panel decision using a competent substantial evidence standard, neither reweighing the evidence in the record nor substituting the reviewer's judgment for that of the Panel. The decision of the Administrative Judge of the Unified Family Court shall be final.

This Administrative Order vacates and supersedes Administrative Order 2020-3-UFC.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, this 22nd day of April, 2022.

/s/ Jack Tuter
Jack Tuter, Chief Judge

Continuing Parenting Coordination Education (CPCE) Reporting Form

Due December 31 of every odd calendar year

Requirements. All qualified parenting coordinators must complete a minimum of 16 hours of CPCE every two years.

If a parenting coordinator is eligible for renewal with less than two years of qualification, the 16 hours of required CPCE shall be calculated on a pro rata basis. Parenting coordinators with:

- four to six months of qualification shall be required to complete four hours of CPCE including one hour of IPV and one hour of either parenting coordination or mediator ethics;
- seven to 12 months of qualification shall be required to complete eight hours of CPCE including two hours of ethics specific to parenting coordination, two hours of IPV specific to parenting coordination with a focus on domestic violence and child abuse, child neglect or abandonment, one hour of mental health and family dynamics, and one hour of Florida family law and rules of procedure;
- 13 to 18 months of qualification shall be required to complete 12 hours of CPCE including two hours of ethics specific to parenting coordination and one hour of either parenting coordination or mediator ethics, two hours of IPV specific to parenting coordination with a focus on domestic violence and child abuse, child neglect or abandonment and one hour of IPV on any topic, one hour of mental health and family dynamics, and one hour of Florida family law and rules of procedure; and
- 19 to 24 months of qualification shall be required to complete all 16 hours of the required CPCE.

Methods: CPCE hours can be earned by any of the following formats:

- attendance at a live lecture or seminar; or
- listening to or viewing previously recorded presentations; or
- attendance at an interactive internet presentation that includes audience participation in real time; or
- attendance at a web-based seminar without real-time audience participation; or
- participation as a lecturer, presenter, or panel member in a CPCE program; or
- attendance at Florida Supreme Court ADR committee or board meetings for the time spent on parenting coordination topics; or
- authoring or editing written materials submitted for publication that have significant intellectual or practical content directly related to the practice of parenting coordination; or
- successfully completing a self-directed program that is qualified for continuing education credit by a governmental licensing board.

Deficiency. If all other qualifications are satisfied but a qualified parenting coordinator is deficient in CPCE hours, the parenting coordinator shall be notified in writing and qualification shall be continued for 90 days from the notice of noncompliance. During those 90 days, the parenting coordinator shall complete all remaining CPCE requirements to be eligible for continued qualification.
