The 17th Judicial Circuit invites and welcomes all who want to participate in the cultivation of a supportive and safe cyber space. We promote positive discourse and continue to lead with the message that the 17th Judicial Circuit continues to serve as a valid source of information. We anticipate that comments will continue to come from a place of understanding, tolerance, relevancy and civility. No content or commentary posted by users will be reviewed by judicial staff or considered when decisions are being made, and no content shall be construed as legal advice.

Community Guidelines

1. The 17th Judicial Circuit retains the right to remove any comments or content it deems inappropriate. Inappropriate content, commentary, or behavior may result in a user being restricted from commenting without notice. A formal complaint may be placed with the moderators of the site as deemed necessary.
2. The 17th Judicial Circuit does not monitor any of its social media or online pages for any inquiries regarding official court business. For inquiries regarding official court business, please call (954) 831-7740.
3. For social media purposes, the 17th Judicial Circuit may occasionally share posts or content from other users. These occurrences do not implicate the endorsement of any specific user, entity, or topic. In addition to these occurrences, posts or content shared via the 17th Judicial Circuit's social media does not imply the endorsement of any specific content or materials being shared, nor does it imply endorsement of such content by the 17th Judicial Circuit.

Liability
